

Being in Place

Private View: Thurs 26th Nov
6pm-8pm

Friday 27th Nov- Tues 1st Dec
11am- 4pm
(closed on Sunday)

Studio 4
Park Hall Business Centre
40 Martell Road
SE21 8EN

“A lived-in landscape becomes a place, which implies intimacy; a once-lived-in landscape can be a place, if explored, or remain a landscape, if simply observed.” Lucy Lippard (1997), pp7-8

EXHIBITING ARTISTS:

Susannah Bolton
Georgie
Finlay Forbes Gower
Amy Leung
Emma Marks
Helen Wilson

Through diverse practice, these artists investigate what can happen if we explore everyday landscapes, objects and acts rather than simply observing them. By considering Lucy Lippard's text, "Lure of the Local", this exhibition asks what everyday encounters can show us about today's human condition and how we fit into what's around us.

Studio 4 is directly accessible from the main car park, which can be entered from Martell Road or Robson Road.
Nearest stations and buses: West Norwood, West Dulwich,
Buses 2, 68, 468

Capture-rapture (installation view at Being In Place, Nov 2015)
10cm x 600cm x 150cm
Soap cast as industrial strip lighting (each 180cm long)

Falling into Otherness (installation view at Being in Place, Nov 2015)

90cm x 70cm x 50cm

Twisted and stitched domestic textiles

Spineless (installation view at Being in Place, Nov 2015)
15cm x 150cm x 15cm
Plaster

